Rom, die Römer & Latein

Romulus & Remus

753 v.Chr. Gründung Roms

Cogito ergo sum!

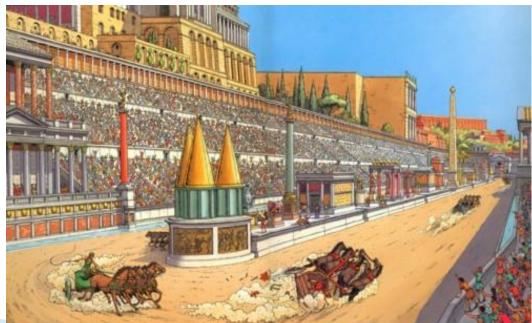

Ich denke, also bin ich!

Raub der Sabinerinnen

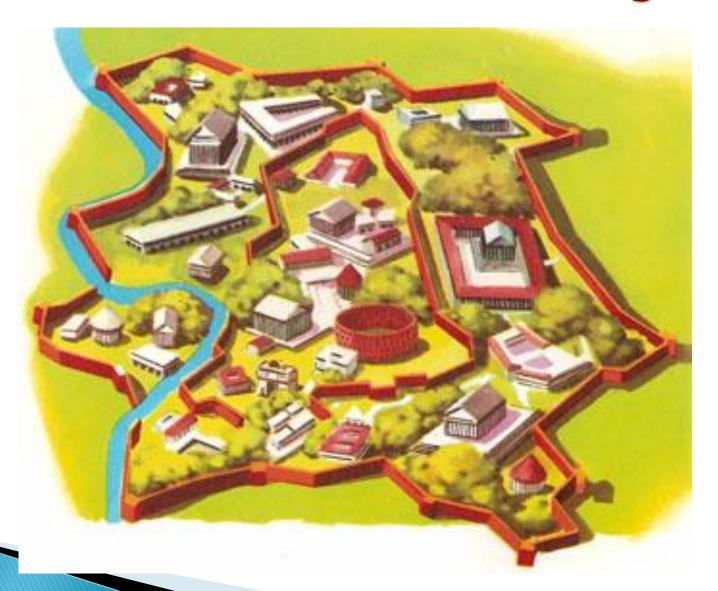

Circus Maximus

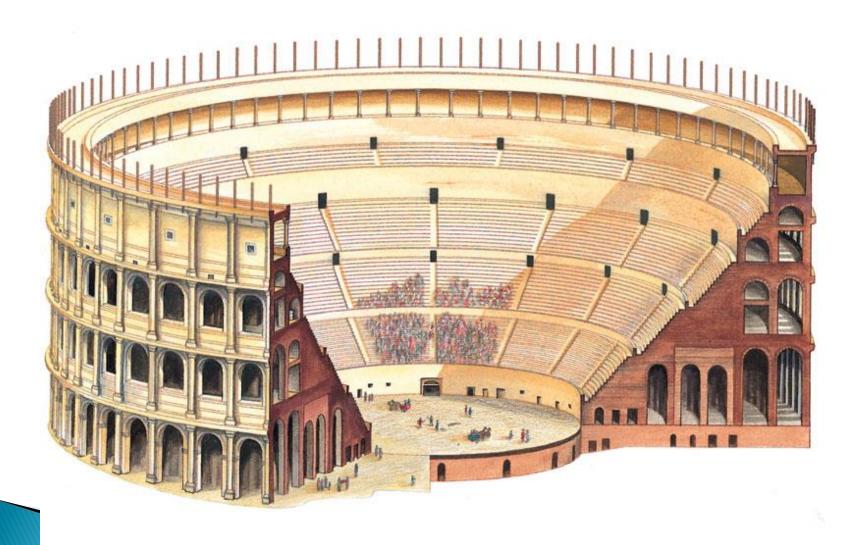

Die Stadt auf den Sieben Hügeln

Caesar: Veni, vidi, vici

Ich kam, ich sah, ich siegte

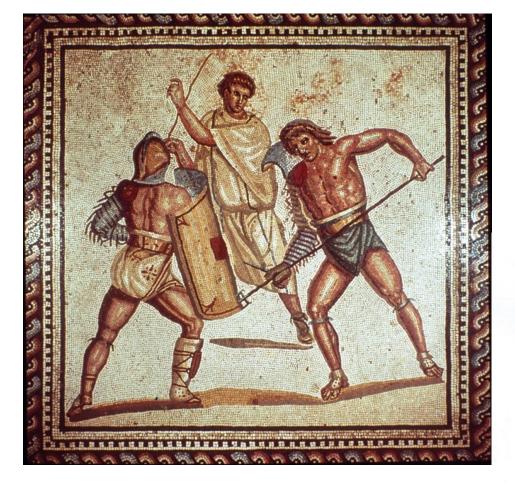

Amphitheatrum Flavium = Kolosseum

Panem & Circenses - Brot & Spiele

Eine faire Paarung ... Secutor vs. Retiarius

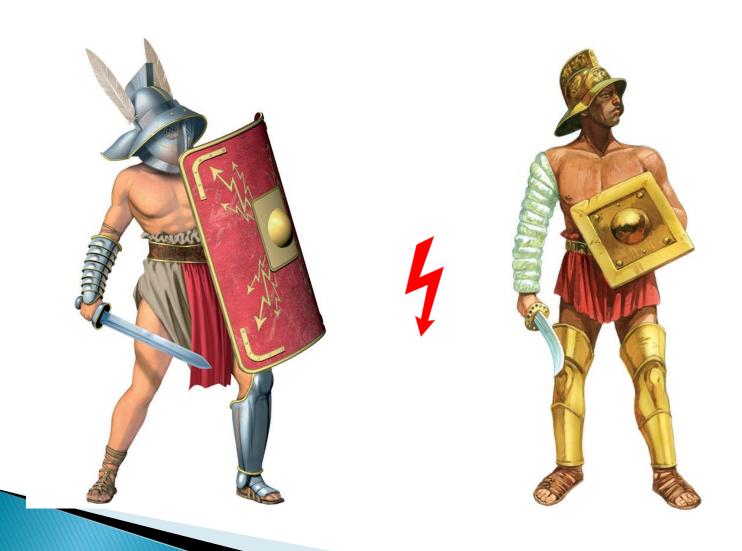

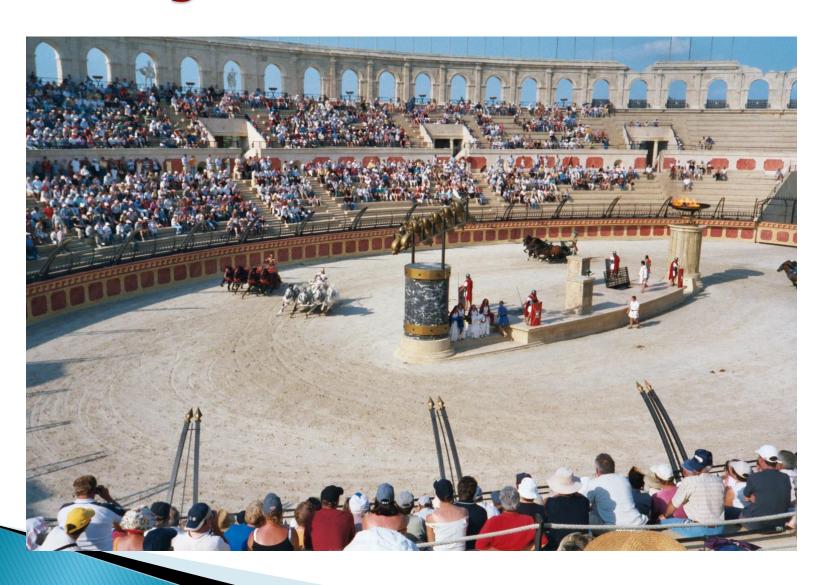

Nunc est bibendum

Lasst uns jetzt trinken!

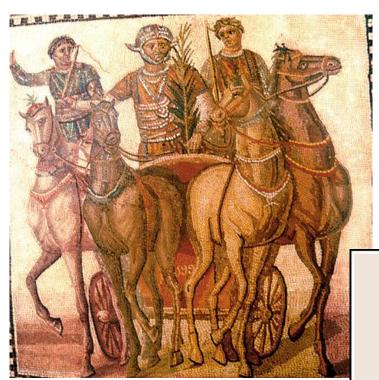

Samnite vs. Thraex

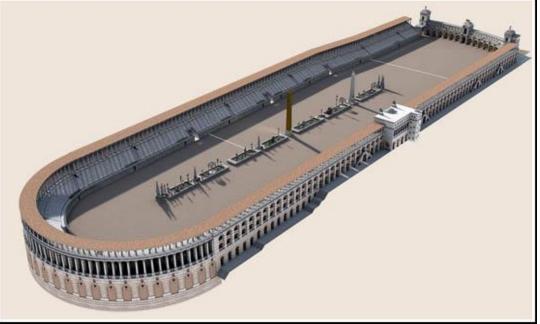

Wagenrennen im Circus

Circus Maximus

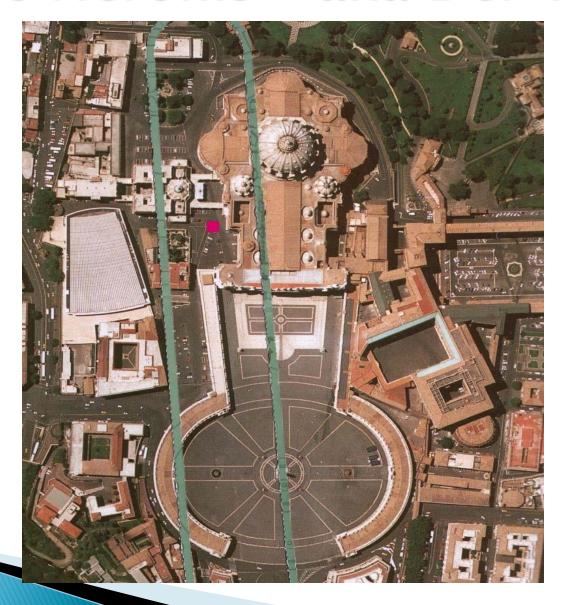

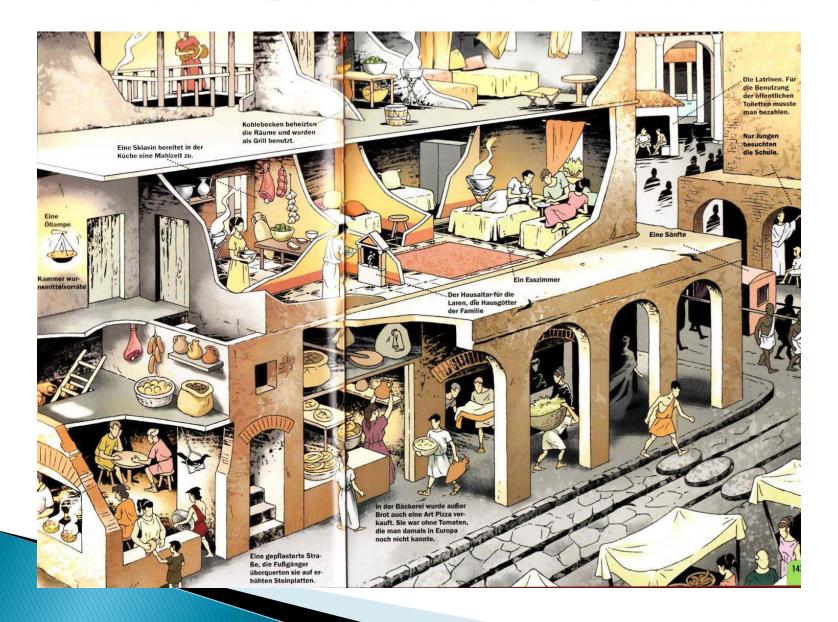

Manus manum lavat

Eine Hand wäscht die andere.

Circus Neronis - aka Der Vatikan

In den Straßen der Subura

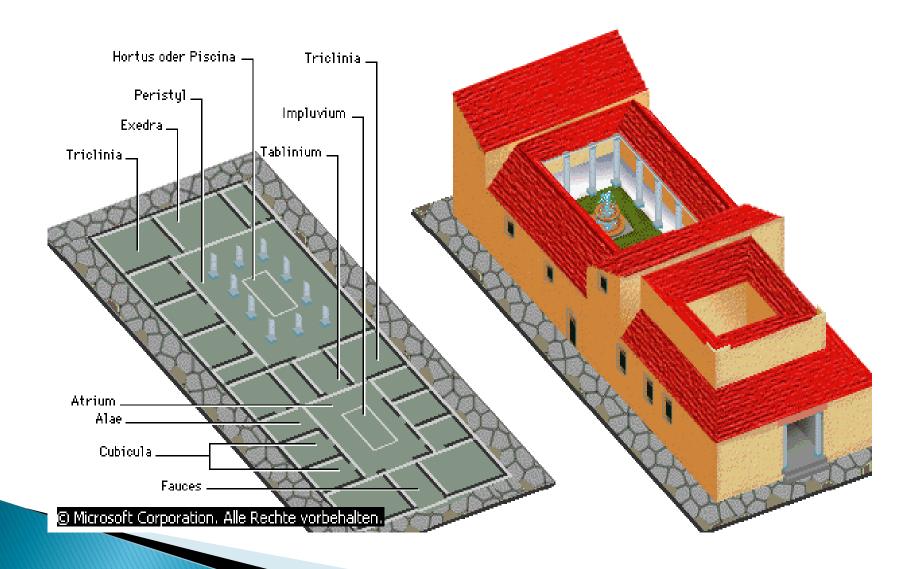

Cucina Romana

Docendo discimus

Durch Lehren lernen wir.

Villa urbana

Die römischen Legionen

Die römischen Legionen

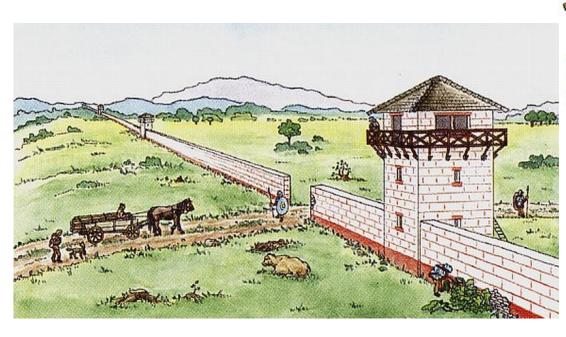

Alea iacta est.

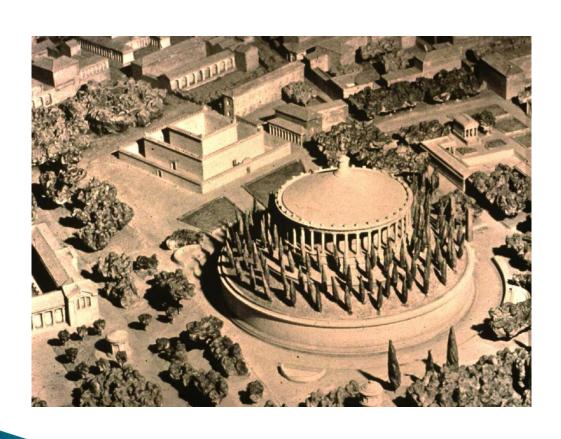

Der Würfel ist gefallen.

Der Römische Limes

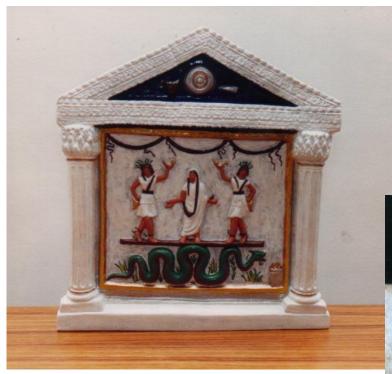

Kaiser Augustus & sein Mausoleum

Die Religion der Römer

Kapitolinische Trias

Penates

Silent leges inter arma

Unter den Waffen schweigen die Gesetze.

Toga, Tunika & Paenula

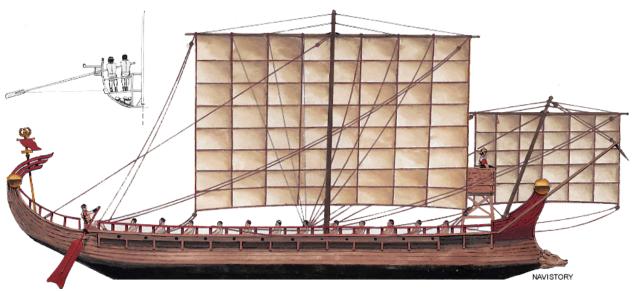

Villa rustica

Römische Flotte

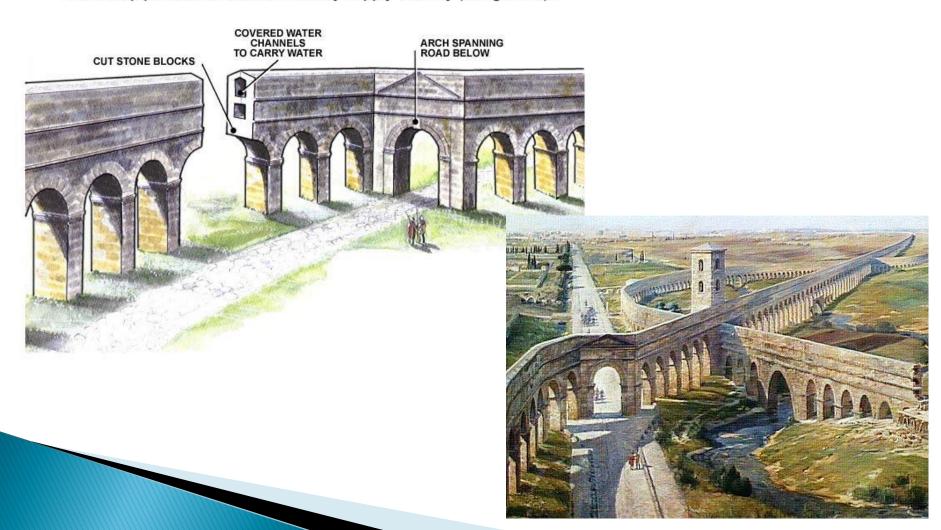

Omnia vincit amor

Alles besiegt die Liebe

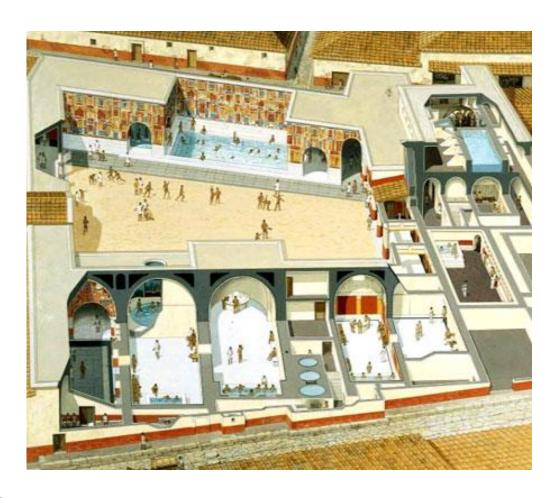

Römische Wasserleitungen

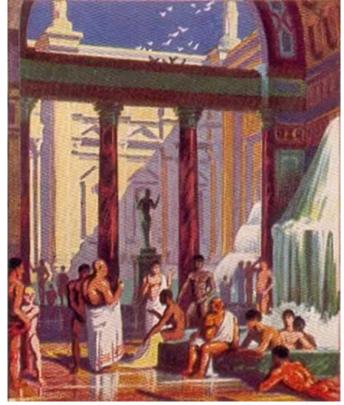

How did an aqueduct work?

Water from a spring in the hills (high ground) was collected in a reservoir to build up pressure and ensure steady supply to a city (low ground).

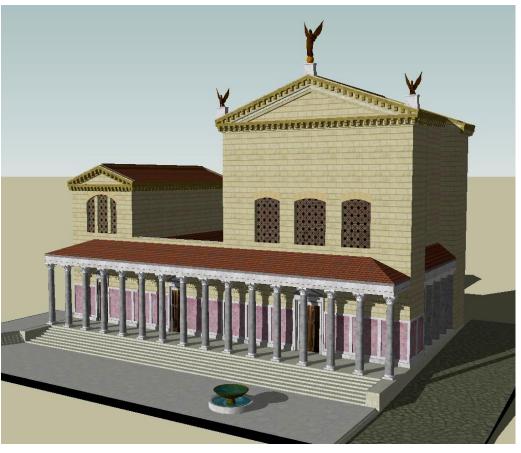

Die Thermen

Der Senat von Rom

Non scholae, sed vitae discimus

Nicht für die Schule, sondern für das Leben lernen wir.